Dear Mr. Weisberg,

Hi...it's me again...the friend of Penn and Louise Jones. I would like to order a couple of more books from you if I may.

1 copy of "Photographic Whitewash"		@ $9.95
1 copy of "Whitewash IV" Top Secret JFK Assassination File"		@ $7.25
		$17.20
	Insurance	.50
		$17.70

Enclosed, please find a check (#2304) in the amount of $17.70 to cover the cost of the books and insurance.

I have read "Whitewash," and found it fascinating...truly has to be considered one of the seminal works on the assassination. Have not gotten to "Post Mortem" yet, but am looking forward to it...as I am looking forward to reading the above ordered books. I am going to try and build up my library...hope to one day find (and then be able to afford) the 26 volumes of hearings and testimony. Do you have any other books that you would recommend pursuing first ? I would rather prioritize my efforts toward obtaining those books that will aid my understanding of the case the most. Any suggestions you can make will be most appreciated.

One book I made the mistake of buying was Jim Moore's "Conspiracy of One." I couldn't believe his arrogant, condescending tone toward you and the other "critics." I wrote to him in Waco and told him as much. I figured an ego like that would not/could not resist a personal challenge. Sure enough, he did respond at great length. His reply spurred me onto to launching another barrage of questions at him concerning his theories and "final solution." He again replied at length...but the old sarcasm and "holier-than-thou" attitude was beginning to show through again. As you would expect, he clung to his theories. I will write him one more time....but I grow tired of his attitude. I wrote to him with what I thought were pretty well-reasoned comments and questions...and for the most part he would just say "READ MY BOOK." I had hoped for amplification or clarification...and all I am getting now is regurgitation.

My point in all this is...have you read his book ? I assume you have. What did you think of it ? My major trouble with his work, was his documentation. The old cliche'..."he's lying and you're swearing to it," comes to mind. It seems his book could've been written without ever having read the 26 volumes of hearings and testimony. He cites as his major sources the Warren and HSAC Reports themsleves. In his entire book, he notes only 17 references from the 26 volumes of evidence...and only from 6 volumes at that.

I found it hard to believe that out of those thousands of pages and millions of words, that Moore could only find 17 instances that either backed up his assertions...or cast doubt on the findings of the "critics."

I don't mean to be burden to you...I am just interested in any thoughts you had on this book.

I have just finished watching (and taping) the A & E Networks' showing of "The Men Who Killed Kennedy" in its "Investigative Reports" series. I found it extremely interesting. Though I don't know enough about the case to fully accept or discard many of the theories and evidence presented, I thought they did a good job.

For me, being relatively young and not having access to Dallas...it was intriguing to see all the newsreel footage in the series....to see the actual places that are significant to the assassination. Also interresting to see the faces (like yours !) that go with the names I have been reading about for years. Were you satisfied with the series ? Do you think they did the case justice ? Have there been any new developments since that was filmed ? Any news leads ?

Well, I don't want to take up any more of your time. If you get the chance, I would really like to hear any comments you have concerning my questions.

Take care and keep up the good work. Looking forward to hearing from you soon.
